

Exploring Your Idea: 13 January 2011

Are you thinking of setting up your own organisation?

Are you thinking of setting up an organisation with social aims and need to know more? Not sure if you should be a charity, social enterprise or community group?

Exploring Your Idea is a one-day introductory course designed to offer you help and advice to get your ideas off the ground.

Whether you are thinking of setting up your own organisation or taking your existing one to the next level, the course will enable you to explore your idea and examine ways to turn it into reality.

Open College Network Level Two accreditation is available.

By the end of the course you will:

- Have a clearer understanding of what it is you need to do next
- Have a realistic action plan
- Have a clearer understanding of the potential structure of your organisation
- Feel more confident in developing your idea
- Have an understanding of how to start your own networks

This course is free to participants based in Norfolk and will be delivered in North Walsham. For participants outside Norfolk the fee is £95 plus VAT

If you are interested and would like to book a place on the course or you require further details, please email services@the-guild.co.uk or call 01603 615200.
